School Mission and Goals

We envision a community that builds life-long learning by cultivating curiosity, personal growth, and achievement. We honor each school community member by providing opportunities and experiences to extend, enrich, and maximize individual potential. We strive for maximum student achievement by providing a safe and caring learning environment that encompasses a positive and responsible school community.

On Campus Incidents 3

We have instituted a new school wide discipline program, SOAR with 4. Students are recognized for making appropriate choices, and a referral system is used to document inappropriate behavior. Parents are immediately informed if their child needs consequences and for what behavior. We also have added another adult monitor to assist at lunch and after school. Student Council members help monitor hallways.
